has just been printed in pamphlet form by ublishing house of Mitchell & Jackson, Knoxville, Tenn. A copy has been nished the APPEAL, but its great length ades the possibility of its publication. We have, however, read the speech with unalloyed pleasure and increased admiration for the author. Judge Sneed has been a conspicuous figure in the politics and his atterances always carry weight friends, who have so long known and rewide circulation. His language, like and concise, indicating throughout the ious thinker. This last speech of Judge Sneed's bears the marks of study and care in preparation, and fully sustains his reputation for ability and elegant literary taste. We have room for one short extract from this masterly discussion of the sues of the Presidential election. Judge champions of the grand old Whig party,

Old-Line Whigs into the support of Blaine And the Republican party, he says:

And the most ridiculous of all modern false protense, is, that they are lineally descended from Henry Clay himself, and this has been recently procloimed in Tennessee. Ye. gods: and little fishes, sid me while I now endeavor to find some family foatures in common and tree the anology. Now, blood will show in men, as well as horses. De you claim it because of similarity of rises on the tariff? I have shown you that you are wide as the poles apart. On a former occasion I had to meet this foothardy assumption that the Republican party of Tennessee is the lineal heir and representative of the old Whig party. I answered it then as I shall answer it now. As an old Whig and one of the old guard of that grand old whig and one of the old guard of that grand take from Mr. Blaine $25,000 in the bonds

Radical party and that the best element of the Whig party stood still for a while, and did not know where to go, until on a little reflection, they mund they were obliged to be Radicals. Democrate or d-n fools, and so they shut their system and joined the Democrate, as that was the nuly pasty then attempting to stem the tide of innst. It is and oppression then prevailing—while on the other hand the Radicals were the worst of all grants and oppression. This classification, however, is too sweeping, as we know that many obsers and honest men, impelled by better motives or by preciative men, impelled by better motives or by preciative of the name of Democrat, or attracted by the suggest of the Radicals, became realous Republicans. These gentlemen must have forgotten that the leading spirits of the old party—John Bell, the last of the Mohiculas of the old party—John Bell, the last of the Mohiculas and oppressions with which the Radical party disgraced civilization after the war, affiliated with the Lemocratic party, and that bundreds of the old Whig party are now its accredited leaders. If they have any doubt as to where old Henry Clay would have stood in those days of Joppression, let them read his speech on the "Solid North." of February 7, 1839, and his speech on the Greek revolution, of the Dth January, 1824 Mr. Clay's love for the Union would have led him to fraternize with the war Democrate while the war ruged, but you had as well attempt to run the Mississippi up stream as tametamorphose such a spirit as that of the sage of Ashland into a modern Kepublican.

Moved by a acromen impulse of patriotism, ignoring all past differences, the old Whigs and Democrats of the South joined in a common alliance and the coalition was welded together by the outrages, robberies and persecutions of the Republican party, which now seeks to win the votes of h now seeks to win the votes of a second I have transmitted to the other old-Line Whigs. While we regret to see that Gov. Henks has actively entered the canvass as an has done, it is a relief to see that does not engage in the small talk of nois, New York and other commissions iricks has actively entered the canvass as his competitor and rises to the dignity of the statesman. In all his speeches Gov. Hendricks has uttered words of wisdom. He has thrown a flood of light on the issues involved in the canvass. In his speech at Columbus on Friday evening

ma Thule railway corps of surveyors have completed the survey of the western sec-tion of this road. They will shortly be-gin at Arkadelphia and locate the permanent roadway of its eastern section from Arkansas City to that point. The survey completed, as it will be as soon as practicable, the speedy construction and completion of the longest and most important railroad running east and west in Southo overflowings. He (Hendricks) had quoted Calk-ns on the supposition that he knew, being a comber of Congress. The question is whether anation is too high and ought to be reformed. I've years ago President Arthur said taxation is on high and ought to be lightened. The revenue innually exceeds the needs of the government y $100,000,000. In 1882 the excess was $145,000, ob. Now there are labor and real estate. They have both got to be reduced. They are the last to come down to the lower level, and when things out they will be the last to advance. I believe the laborer is worthy of his hire, but we must take all things into consideration. Now, if an employer gets $5 for a laborer is work he can't afford to pay the laborer is, can he? Instead if reducing the public dobt we ought to increase it. If Mr. Vanderbilt had ever tried to support a family on $1 a day as the brakemen on railroads have to do, he would be very anxious to increase instead of decrease the price of labor, and he would be equally anxious to decrease instead of increase the national debt, the whole burden of which rests upon the productive labor of Mrs. Annie Wetmore-Wallingford Collier Tippany-Redheffers-Hawes, or Hayes, now on trial for bigamy in New York, might as well be set up as the last terrible example. It is doubtful if any woman since the days of the New Testament has been so much and yet so little married. And what with her numerous husbands, her tears, the powder on her face and her unhappy aspect when the powder rubs off, she seems to be amusing even to New York judges. Mrs. Hawes and her outcome are a beautiful example of what legalized female intidelity and frequent divorces amount to. Her whole experience appears to be based on the fact that she did not find a man to suit her and so got her five divorces almost as fast as she got her husbands.

Mrs. Dainttwell, one of the neatest and most "particular" of women, would always say to her husband when he was objecting to the clean shirt which she insisted upon laying out for him every morning: "Just reflect, Tom! What if you should meet with an accident, be run over by a stage on Breadway, or something of that kind, and people should find that you had on a shirt you had worn for a week! Collins Brothers Drug Co., St. Louis, Mo. Gentlemen;

I desfree to state that I am selling your Colling Ague Cure, and never without it, nor will I be as long as it can be obtained. I have been selling Medicines of different kinds for twenty years, but nothing I ever knew equals your Ague Cure, in fact it has almost put a stop to the sale of quinine and calomel at my store, for where it is used there is no need for purgative medicine of any kind.

I have been getting what I have sold of it from Mess. I. C. DuBose & Co., of Mobile, although ittakes but little to keep me supplied, for the very reason that one 50 cent bottle is plenty to cure a half dozon cases of Malarial Fever.
